Paradigm Trends

MAY 2023 – OCT 2026

HEAD OF MARKETING · NEW YORK, NY

Promoted twice in just over two years. Led marketing, reporting directly to ownership, for a 40+ year B2B supplier of furnishings and guestroom products to luxury and hyper-luxury hotels across the US, Europe and the Middle East. Managed three coordinators, three consultants and a $35K SEO agency budget.

- Led a multi-year repositioning from long-standing supplier to design-led partner for luxury hospitality, including Middle East expansion: positioning, tone of voice, visual identity and photography across web, email, video, catalogs and collateral.
- Led product marketing and sales enablement with the product team: buyer personas and messaging, launch readiness for new collections, and sales kits, pitch decks and solution briefs that turned complex offerings into seller-ready value propositions.
- Directed social and short-form video across Instagram, LinkedIn, TikTok and YouTube Shorts, creating and editing hands-on: a viral Reel hit 3.1M views (97.6% non-followers) and 50K+ shares, and the YouTube Shorts channel I launched passed 200K views.
- Made LinkedIn the brand's highest-intent channel: 30% average engagement in 2026 against a 5–8% B2B benchmark, 13.5K+ clicks, and #1 for follower growth and engagement against tracked competitors.
- Rebuilt the Salesforce Account Engagement (Pardot) lead lifecycle and channel attribution with Sales: $600K in qualified pipeline in six months, with organic social tied to $79,550 in closed-won revenue within three months.
- Used Adobe Firefly, Canva AI and Gemini to turn one shoot into assets for every channel; led the website and SEO (engagement up 6.0 points YoY), trade shows and the 40th anniversary campaign; pitched press and presented results to leadership.
